The Barbour Chapel Portative Cabinet Organ
Harald Rapp, Opus 23 (1998)
Mengen, Germany

In 1998 a small, 4-stop portable cabinet organ was acquired from Harald Rapp Organ Builders of Mengen, Germany. The delightful instrument was given “In Loving Memory of Elizabeth Mueller and Elizabeth Sladen.”

The small instrument is contained in a solid oak case in a natural finish and “resides” in Barbour Chapel where it amply supports congregational singing. Because of its portability it has been moved into the Sanctuary for use in concerts as a continuo organ.
